

After the RNCM Open Day

If you've liked what you've seen and heard at today's Open Day and would like to make an application, here's a useful checklist of what to do next

- Familiarise yourself with the School of Study and programme that you wish to apply for. Read the prospectus and visit www.rncm.ac.uk/studyhere.
- Check the entry requirements for your programme of study. Visit www.rncm.ac.uk/entrancerequirements for details.
- Check the audition requirements. Visit www.rncm.ac.uk/auditionprocess for details.
- Submit your application via UCAS Conservatoires. The deadline for September 2019 entry is 1 October 2018.
- Keep an eye on UCAS Conservatoires Track for updates on your application and details of your audition (which will take place between November – December).
- Attend your live audition at the RNCM. Ensure you're familiar with the audition process and prepare to spend a full day at the College.
- If you are offered a place at the RNCM, congratulations! Please accept your offer via UCAS Conservatoires Track by 31 January. You will also be invited to attend an Offer Holders Event in January so please RSVP to this.

If you have any other queries about the application process, please visit www.rncm.ac.uk/howtoapply or contact the RNCM Admissions Team via admissions@rncm.ac.uk.

We hope to welcome you back to the RNCM soon!
