

CHLOE CHARLES

Two years ago, young Canadian singer-songwriter and classical guitarist Chloe Charles released her debut EP, Little Green Bud – leaving music critics and fans alike striving to put into words what it is that Chloe does; she’s spellbindingly different.

The press have likened Chloe to everyone from Björk to Billie Holiday, Amy Winehouse to Adele, Alicia Keys to Joni Mitchell. Whilst this reflects her incredible range, it goes a long way towards describing why her musical magic truly defies classification. Perhaps the result of her growing up in a large musical family - which includes one Cynthia Lennon; making Chloe Julian Lennon’s step-sister - has had something to do with it!

Having sold out two shows at the EFG London Jazz Festival 2013, as well as being a TEDx Keynote Speaker, and with a blossoming career that’s about to go off the scales this year with the release of her first album, Break The Balance; Chloe will be showcasing her talent, joined by violinist Davide Santi, as the opening act for Naturally 7’s UK tour in February + March 2014.

PRESS QUOTES

Haunting, lush, beautiful... spellbinding guitar work (Guitar World)

Unique and colourful songwriter-pop songs with an introverted beauty of surprising clarity. (Rolling Stone)

Poised, charismatic and quirky, Chloe Charles breaks black female vocalist stereotypes as she arrives on stage with her classical guitar, accompanied by viola, double bass, or other unexpected twists and turns of her musical imagination. (National Post, Canada)
