

International Artist Diploma

Vocal Studies
and Opera

rncm.ac.uk/internationalartist

RNCM
ROYAL NORTHERN
COLLEGE of MUSIC

International Artist Diploma

Vocal Studies and Opera

The RNCM International Artist Diploma (IAD) in Vocal Studies and Opera offers the very highest level of professional musical training, culminating in a major role in an RNCM Opera production and other high-profile performance opportunities.

Applications are now being accepted from UK and overseas singers for this fulltime postgraduate programme. We offer a professional platform and development opportunities through a bespoke package of work with renowned international coaches, directors and conductors; development of performance skills through intensive one-to-one coaching, vocal consultancy and language coaching; and a wide range of classes focusing on stage skills.

The unique year-long flexible diploma would suit exceptional performers who have already undertaken some postgraduate study and are now on the cusp of an international operatic career, providing a gateway to a prestigious performance portfolio.

All students accepted onto this programme will have their tuition fees covered in full.

Application deadline: Friday 1 February 2019

Auditions will take place on 19 - 20 March 2019

Informal enquiries may be made by contacting david.horne@rncm.ac.uk

For more information, including how to apply, visit rncm.ac.uk/internationalartist